

COVID-19 ASSESSMENT SURVEY RESULTS

FROM 150 RESPONDENTS

Have you had to reduce staff due to the pandemic?	Yes	No
	88%	12%

If you did reduce staff, what percentage of employees were you forced to release due to the pandemic?	More than 50%	Less than 50%	27% released less than 30% of staff	28% released 31% to 70% of staff	45% released more than 71% of staff
	60%	40%

Have you been able to rehire/replace staff members?	Yes	No
	50%	50%

If you have been able to replace staff, what percentage of pre-COVID staffing are you currently operating with?	More than 50%	Less than 50%	33% have replaced less than 30% of staff	39% have replaced 31% to 70% of staff	28% have replaced more than 71% of staff
	53%	47%

Comparing to last year's income (Sept. 30, 2019 - Sept. 30, 2020), what percentage of sales are you down due to the pandemic?	More than 50%	Less than 50%	14% are down less than 30%	46% are down 31% and 69%	40% are down more than 71%
	66%	34%

Did you receive a PPP loan?	Yes	No	10% used 30% or less of PPP loan for	28% used 31% to 70% of PPP for Payroll	62% used 71% to 100% of PPP for Payroll
	83%	17%

If you received a PPP loan, what percentage of the loan was used for payroll?	More than 50%	Less than 50%
	85%	15%

Did you receive an EIDL loan?	Yes	No
	63%	37%

If you received an EIDL loan, would you have applied for more than the maximum $150,000 if you were able to?	Yes	No
	56%	44%

Are you planning on applying for the next round of federal stimulus assistance when it becomes available?	Yes	No
	86%	14%

When do you expect your business to get back to pre-COVID levels?	It already has	3%
	Within the next three months	3%
	Between three and six months	11%
	Between six and 12 months	29%
	More than a year	53%