NEW EMPLOYEE JOINS AAMA

AAMA Welcomes Administrative Assistant, Jackie Kane

Elk Grove Village, IL – Sept. 13, 2022 – Jackie Kane recently joined the American Amusement Machine Association (AAMA) as the administrative assistant. Jackie brings previous nonprofit association experience and a positive mindset to the AAMA team.

Jackie entered the association world while working at the American Academy of Pediatrics. As a life support assistant, she provided education on CPR for premature babies. She worked with members, board members and committees. She doesn't just bring work experience: "I want to bring a good attitude and energy to work seamlessly with the team," Jackie said. "I am happy to be on board!"

Jackie will help AAMA stay one step ahead with upcoming events and activities planned for the upcoming season. "Jackie is a great fit for our team culture," AAMA Executive Vice President Peter Gustafson said. "Her positive attitude and energy coupled with her passion to make a positive difference will absolutely contribute to our aggressive goals and objectives."

Business and Finance Manager Tina Schwartz is also excited about Jackie joining AAMA. "The backbone of a great association is great people! Jackie is already helping us accomplish our upcoming plans."

Jackie is originally from Palatine, Ill. In her free time, Jackie goes to concerts and listens to all kinds of music. She also enjoys camping, swimming and hiking with her rescue dog, Pearl. Jackie can be reached at jackie@coin-op.org or at (847) 290-9088.

About The AAMA
